

Prayer
Worksheet 28
Seeking Answers to Prayer

1. When are you supposed to ask God for answers (James 1:5)?
2. Why does God allow trials in our lives (James 1:5)?
3. According to James 1:3 what are trials testing?
4. What kind of maturity do trials bring in the life of a Christian (James 1:4)?
5. Is it a sign of strong faith and a mature believer to lack wisdom and always be asking God for answers?
6. Are you to allow your circumstances to control the way you pray (James 1:6)?
7. How is faith supposed to control the way you pray (James 1:6)?
8. How is the doubting person like the surf of the sea (James 1:6)?
9. How are your circumstances like the wind (James 1:6)?
10. If you do not allow your faith to be the basis of prayer, should you expect God to listen (James 1:7)?
11. What is God trying to teach you about prayer through trials?
12. What is God trying to teach you about Himself through trials?
13. What is the source of you not praying (James 4:2)?
14. What kind of things do you not pray about? Is this selfish of you?
15. Do you give some things to God in prayer and keep some things for your self? Why?
16. How is this being double-minded and unstable?
17. Is there a way to pray to try to use and manipulate God (James 4:3)?
18. Does God answer these prayers (James 4:3)?
19. Are you a user in your prayers (James 4:3)?
20. What kind of perspective is the opposite of using God?
21. In what kind of circumstances are you to pray (James 5:13)?
22. Can singing be a prayer (James 5:13)?
23. What kind of sickness is described in James 5:14?
24. Why are the elders of the church to be called on (James 5:14)?
25. How are the elders supposed to pray (James 5:14)?
26. How is praying to restore a person not offered on the basis of circumstances (James 5:15)?
27. How is faith rather than circumstances the basis of prayer (James 5:15)?
28. Is praying for one another a basis for spiritual healing (James 5:16)?
29. Is confessing your sins to one another a Christian way to find an answer to prayer (James 5:17)?

30. Is un-confessed sin a hindrance to answered prayer?